

License

I've spend four years of labor, and thousands out of my pocket, to produce this, and would like to reserve a little head start to distribute it. As of March 31, 2007, any purchaser of this DVD is given a non-exclusive license to show it on local cable access television. Any purchaser is also licensed, as of this moment, to show it to groups, meetings, and at fundraising events, and to donate it to libraries and schools. Libraries and schools are freely licensed to circulate it and show it to classes.
