

Returns

We try to ship no later than next day; it is possible that we may occasionally be overloaded and unable to meet this goal, but will ship as quickly as we can. We ship First Class mail, which should reach the West Coast in about two days, and the East Coast in about three to four days. If you haven't gotten yours within a week, give me an email at the address below, or call me direct at 520-749-0241.

The DVDs have been professional encoded and replicated, which ensures the highest level of compatibility. No product is 100% perfect, and so we offer refund or replacement of any defective disks returned within 30 days of purchase. Before returning a defective DVD, if you send email to me at (dthardy@mindspring.com), I'll be sure to have your replacement packaged and ready to go. Mention RETURN in the subject line of the email so I know to give it priority. The address for returns is: Second Amendment Films LLC 8987 E. Tanque Verde, PMB 265 Tucson AZ 85749. Incidentally, at one point when the narrator is speaking from Arlington National Cemetery, the audio has a ringing tone. This is not a defect — it's a result of having to heavily filter the audio, because the location is within a hundred yards of a major DC highway.
